FRED R. BOSWELL

IN MEMORIAM

Seldom can one person accomplish so much in his chosen field or contribute so greatly to the intellectual development of young people as did former Hillcrest Principal Fred R. Boswell.

It is difficult to imagine the magnitude of Mr. Boswell's achievement for Hillcrest. From his appointment as the principal of Vickery-Hillcrest High School at its opening until he resigned in 1961, Mr. Boswell strove to establish the Hillcrest tradition of scholastic achievement and individual recognition. His reward was the respect and admiration of the students, teachers and parents with whom he worked.

As he watched Hillcrest grow from a small county school to its present scope and size, Mr. Boswell maintained contact with all facets of Hillcrest.

For his understanding of the educational problems of Hillcrest and his outstanding administrative ability, Hillcrest will always honor the memory of its former principal.

ACTIVITIES

Seniors release "pent-up" emotions at the All-Night party.

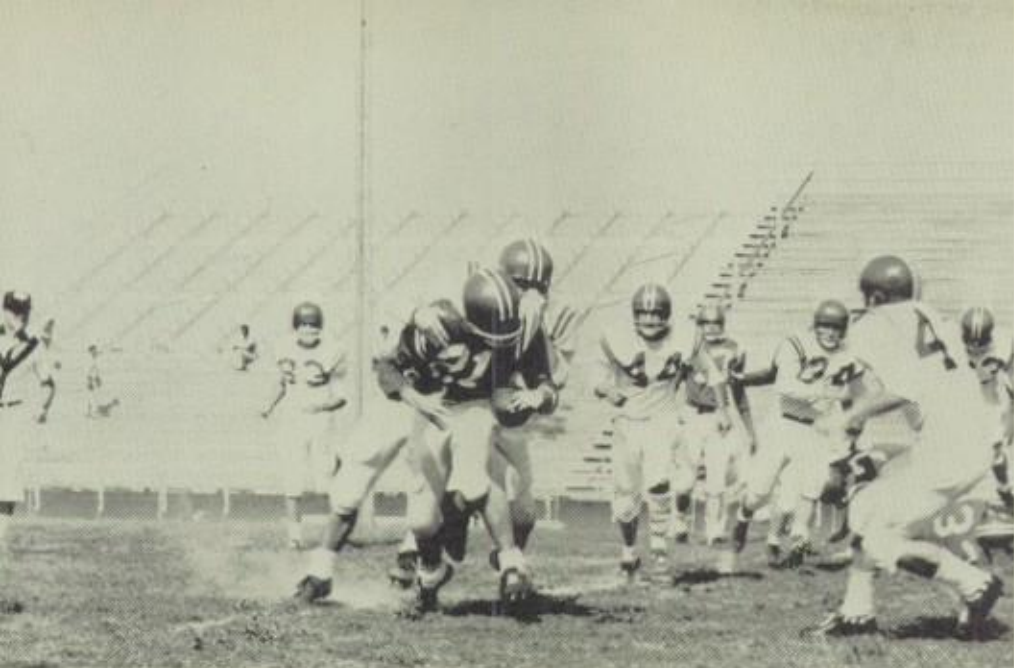

S P R I N G

Susan Saunders introduces one of the guest speakers at the Career Clinic.

Teachers Mr. Moore and Miss Attebery retrace vaudeville acts.

Prospective "A" Team football players display athletic "talents?"

Seniors' activities put a lighter slant on the future than did the Career Clinic. The Faculty Variety Show proved that teachers do have "outside interests." Spring scrimmage and National Honor Society showed Hillcrest's "brawn and brain." The student body enthusiastically elected new leaders.

Judy Smith speaks on scholarship at the National Honor Society's spring initiation.

Junior Mac Mac-Andrew campaigns for class officer.

Hard-working annual staff members Polly Richter and Ann Klar relax after spring deadline.

After months of weary waiting, students lounge in the grass with their '62 annuals.

Spring is a trying season for student, Pam McCaskill, and student teacher, Miss Alvarez.

Latin Club King Stuart Bumpus crowns "Regina" Susie Poston.

SPRING

It is a happy moment as Mr. Freeman receives the dedication of the 1962 Panther by editors Susan Saunders and Paula Richter.

At last the long awaited Panther brought relief to the annual staff and excitement to the student body. Spring finals and Latin Club showed intellectual side of Hillcrest. Mr. Freeman received Panther dedication and Mr. McBrayer was honored at the Key Club Assembly. Patriotic Assembly displayed precision of NDCC.

Key Club president, Dean Damon, says, "Smile, you're on Candid Camera!"

Hillcrest initiates a new "first" in patriotic assemblies for civics classes.

Seniors get away with anything—even Mickey Mouse analogies.

Spring brings many stage productions: musical and senior play.

Seniors '62 made their final contributions to Hillcrest at the Senior Assembly. Art Service Club was the source of artistic talent. Hillcrest students eagerly enjoyed healthful lunchroom food. Climax! Seniors' last night together . . . graduation brought sentimental tears for the past and hopeful expectations for the future.

Double, double, toil and trouble. Soup burn and dessert bubble.

SPRING

Chaperones plan a well-rounded all-night party; it started with bingo . . .

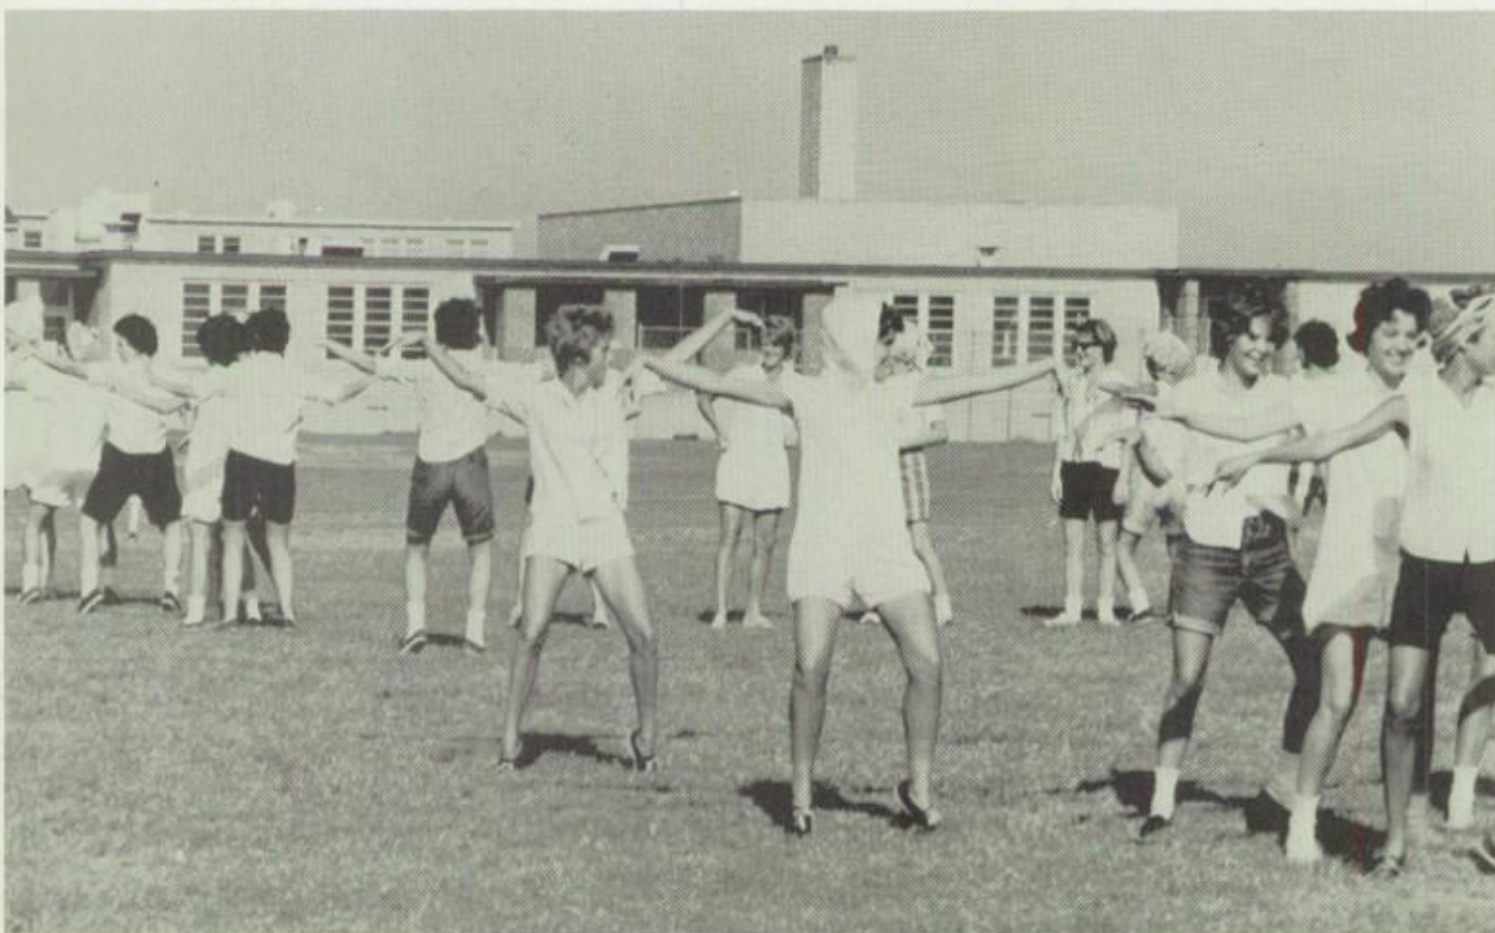

Seniors '62 graduate at S.M.U. Coliseum.

Panader "beauty" excells during the summer practice.

Rule 6: Do not put water in car. Put car in water.

The Hillcrest Panaders are considered the most graceful and versatile girls in the school.

S U M M E R

Sentimentality of Seniors '62 and the excitement of Seniors '63 . . . Panaders worked hard to perfect their routines; Sally Budd struggled to retrieve her car from Lake Dallas. The hilarious antics improved half-time shows. Junior boys worked over plays while Sophomores played over work. Panther ad salesman Steve Smith showed Cindy Branch who's boss at Dick Chaplain's School of Dance.

No buts about it—that football didn't move!

Sophomore boys get into the swing of Hillcrest football . . .

Social etiquette?

Fellowship of Christian Athletes serves as a religious inspiration to Hillcrest athletes.

At Camp Dallas we see the "cream" of the crop.

Hillcrest students "got away from it all" at various retreats. Athletes attended Fellowship of Christian Athletes in Colorado. Military boys attended NDCC camp in Mineral Wells. Taxco summer school offered siesta and fiesta during warm and lazy days, while Mary Carolyn Hall enjoyed the snowy weather of Colorado at Gold Lake Ranch. Back at home, football players took time from practice to recover their energy. Suzy Jones was honored at a going-away shower and Jill Roark was welcomed home from her summer in Finland.

Children in the lazy weather,
Run and laugh and play together.

Snow, snow, how I love to play in the mud.

S U M M E R

Vigorous workouts and exhausting drills helped get our football team in shape last August.

I'm a little teapot short and stout;
Here is my handle, here is my spouse.

Foreign exchange student Jill Roark is welcomed home by friends on her return from Finland.

Cheerleaders display feats of agility and skill they learned at cheerleading school this summer.

Kay, Dani, Bill, and Susie attend a weekly annual meeting.

Summer brought optimistic preparations for the coming school year. Cheerleaders energetically worked out enthusiastic yells. Ad salesmen for the annual held weekly meetings to organize funds for the Panther; and those same businesslike people made the most of their salesmanship while selling ads to various companies. Dick McCallum and the Panaders took time out from practice and last year's seniors went rolling along on an old tractor. Someone at band practice sat down on the job, but Jill Roark of the Hurricane staff did just the opposite.

S U M M E R

"Togetherness"

"You're too young!"

Former Hillcrest students turn out in multitudes to have a little fun on graduation day.

Hillcrest "Marching"? Band.

Karen Muhm extends a "helping hand" to Jill Roark.

Office assistants inform students of what to look forward to.

Major Moring announces draft selections.

Fall ushered in the promise of an exciting school year. Office assistants posted weekly activities in the hall to forecast coming events. Major Moring helped to eliminate confusion during sophomore orientation. Student Council Workday expanded the treasury and domestic abilities of students. Members of the Hurricane staff spent an unusual day at the Fair. Steve Weisenbaker and friends shared delight at his being placed on Senior Pub staff, and Mr. Apple's daily announcements attracted "interested" listeners. The car smash built up school spirit but tore down an unlucky car.

Workday builds teamwork among Student Council members.

"Fill 'er up!"

FALL

I always knew I was a prince-able guy.

As you were . . .

We had a smashing good time.

On a cold day, there's nothing like a good "worm" meal.

If I don't get my glass of water . . .

While students took biology courses to heart (or to stomach), Miss Watson jokingly gave up on her carefree math students. Class officers informed student body of the annual scholarship fund. Football players contributed a little bit of humor during fall practice. A brave bus carried Seniors to a Thanksgiving skiing trip. Athletic Senior girls were worth their weight in strength both in gym class and in New Mexico when that faithful bus failed.

Class officers give full support to scholarship fund.

Mac MacAndrews gives team members a "lift."

This bus has five "horse power."

Jo and Tim have a good time on the ski trip.

Well, Denny, how does it feel to escort a winner?

Marilee, if you can't beat 'em, join 'em!

There seems to be a traffic congestion during inclement weather.

Hey, Karen, are the Rebels going to win this game?

FALL

"Sinners, repent"

The exciting event of Homecoming saw ex-Hillcrest student and '61 queen, Sally Anthony, congratulate new queen, Glenda Straw. Betsy Clark and Marilee Asel performed for the Spanish Club banquet. Rain or shine the track team got in their workout. T. J. Drillmaster and Hillcrest Drillmaster "met" on the battlefield at half-time. Editor Hawkins Menefee contributed a humorous vein to the serious-minded members of the Panther staff. Peggy Johnston happily abandoned books for a newspaper, reading of her nomination for Key Club princess. The efficient National Honor Society frantically made final preparations for their fall initiation.

They chose me . . . I knew they would.

NHS members exchange answers on a test.

Now that we have something in common, we can be friends.

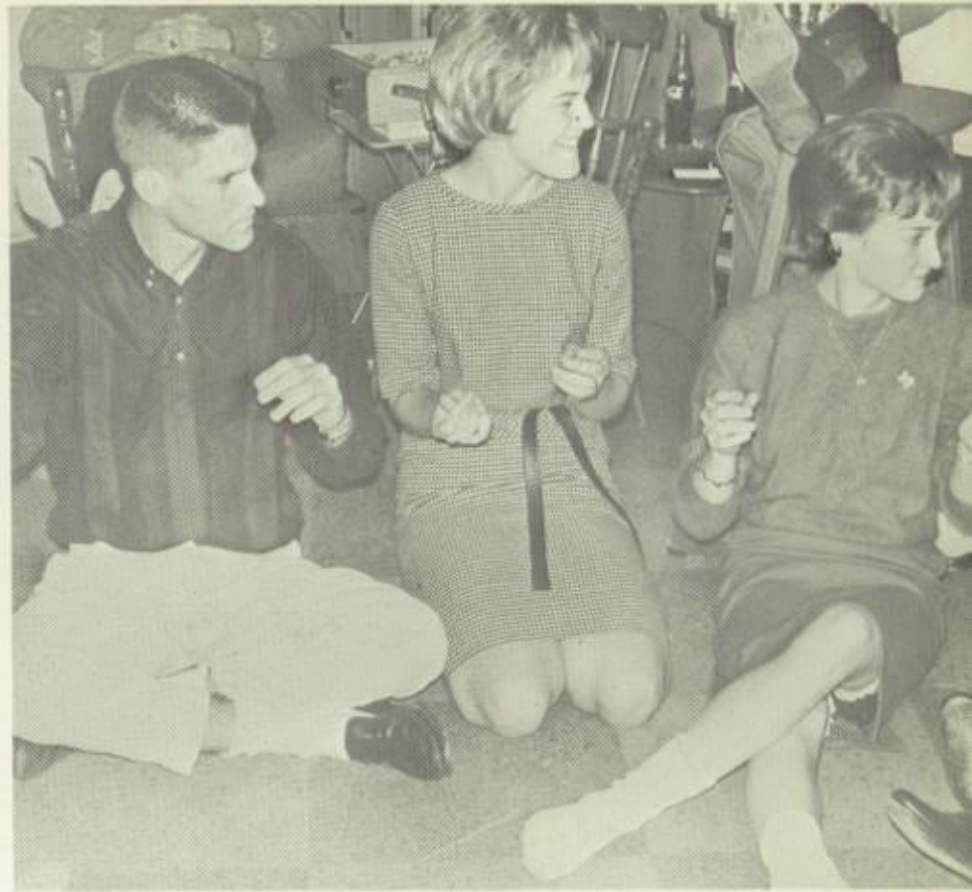

W I N T E R

A young man's fancy turns to . . .

Student Council's Christmas party delights children at the Development Center.

At senior parties we play many "fun games"!

Winter opened with the crowning of Bucky Ritts, Sisteens King, and Cindy Branch, Key Club Queen. Minds seemed to drift away from studies as the holidays approached. Thespians presented a comedy—and the Student Council gave a Christmas party for the Children's Development Center. Students laughed their cares away at Christmas parties; then back to school, back to work, back to the "kitchen." High school "heroes" celebrated upon receiving their letter jackets.

One big, happy family.

1, 2, 3, kick!

How do they expect us to learn anything at this hour of the morning?

Ding! Round three is over!

The National Honor Society Student Help Program conducted classes to aid students. Basketball players really worked "body and soul." TV star Dale Robertson spoke to an interested audience about movie life; and though not exactly pros, the senior play cast worked faithfully to learn its lines. Spanish students broke the traditional pinata at the Pan American Club Banquet. Devoted practice for the musical effected a successful performance.

I've been driving the same Buick since 1931.

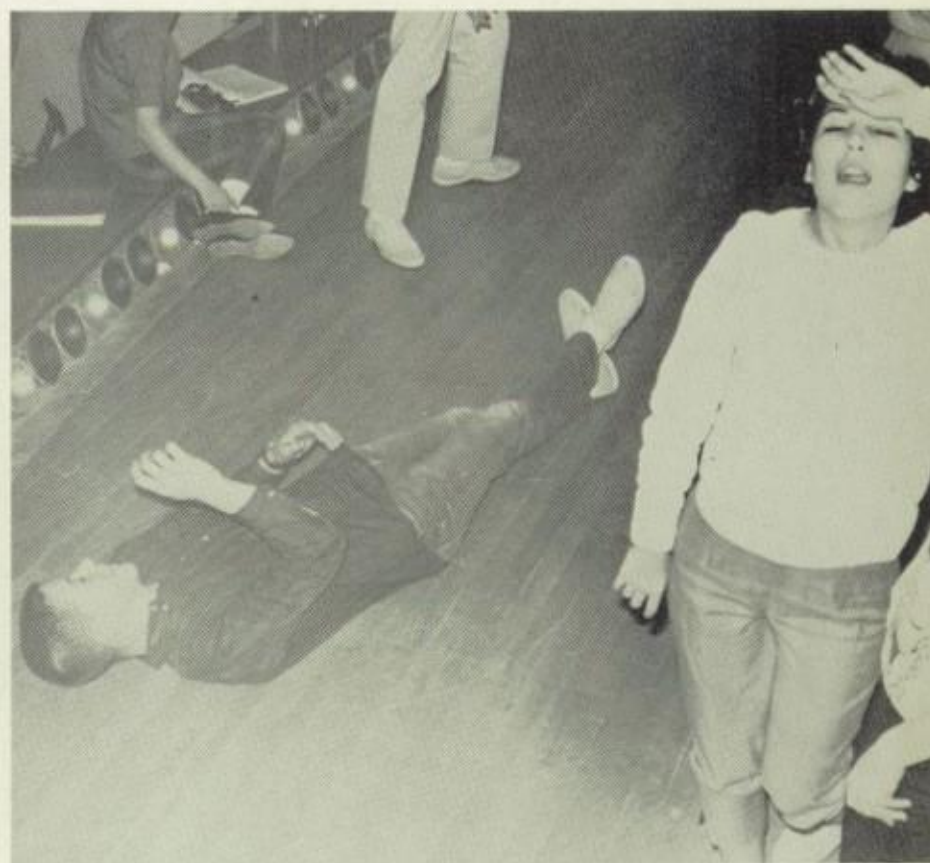

W I N T E R

Members of the senior play cast energetically learned their lines.

Strike three, it's out!

Please, John, I'd rather do it myself!

David Bell arrests Jimmy Parker in the musical.

New teacher, Miss Merriman, congratulates Mr. Freeman on PTA life membership.

Sally Budd shows new Panaders how it's done, and boy, does she know how!

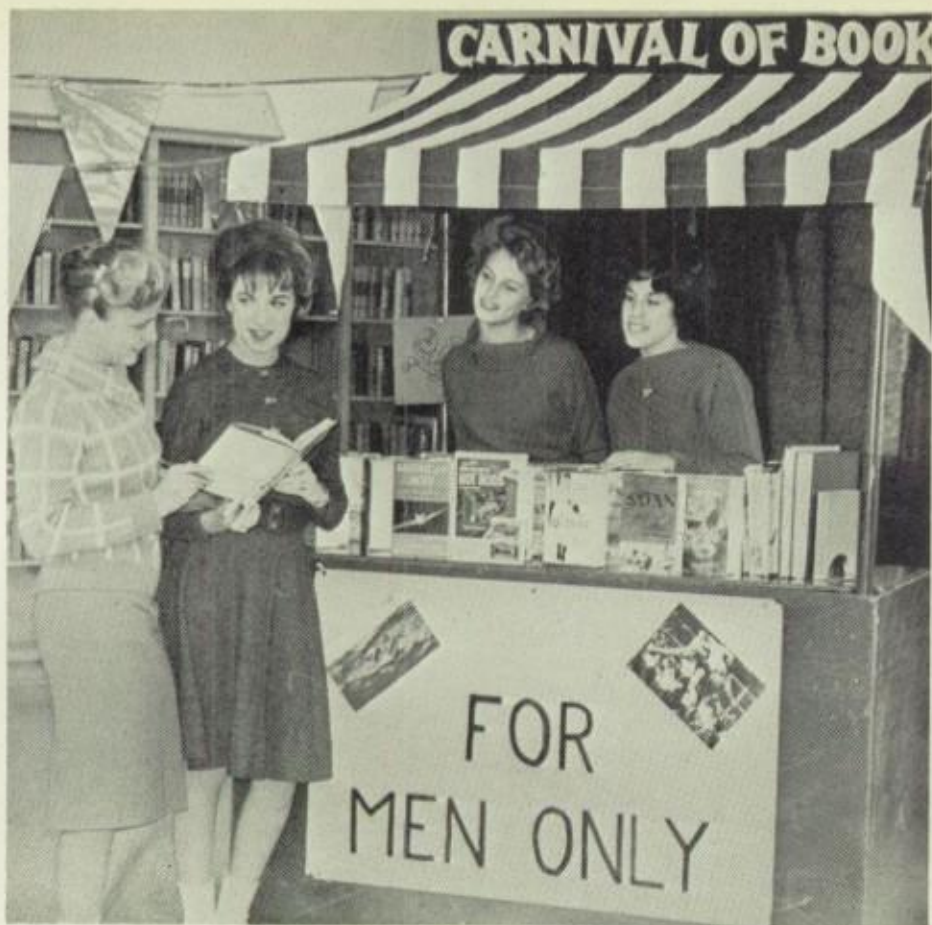

All right, boys, on three it's "When the Saints Go Marchin' In."

Chemistry with Mr. Head is really a "gas."

W I N T E R

So what if this is like the picture in last year's annual?

Miss Fran Merriman presented Mr. Freeman with PTA life membership. Senior Panaders cast a watchful eye on girls trying out for Panaders. Students were entertained by the talent show and chemistry classes were entertained by Mr. Head's antics. Seniors explored new horizons in the carnival of books. Glee Club officers set musical patterns and Betsy Clark and Cindy Boswell shared excitement at receiving the honor of Hall of Fame.

Voices of angels sing lyrics of the devil.

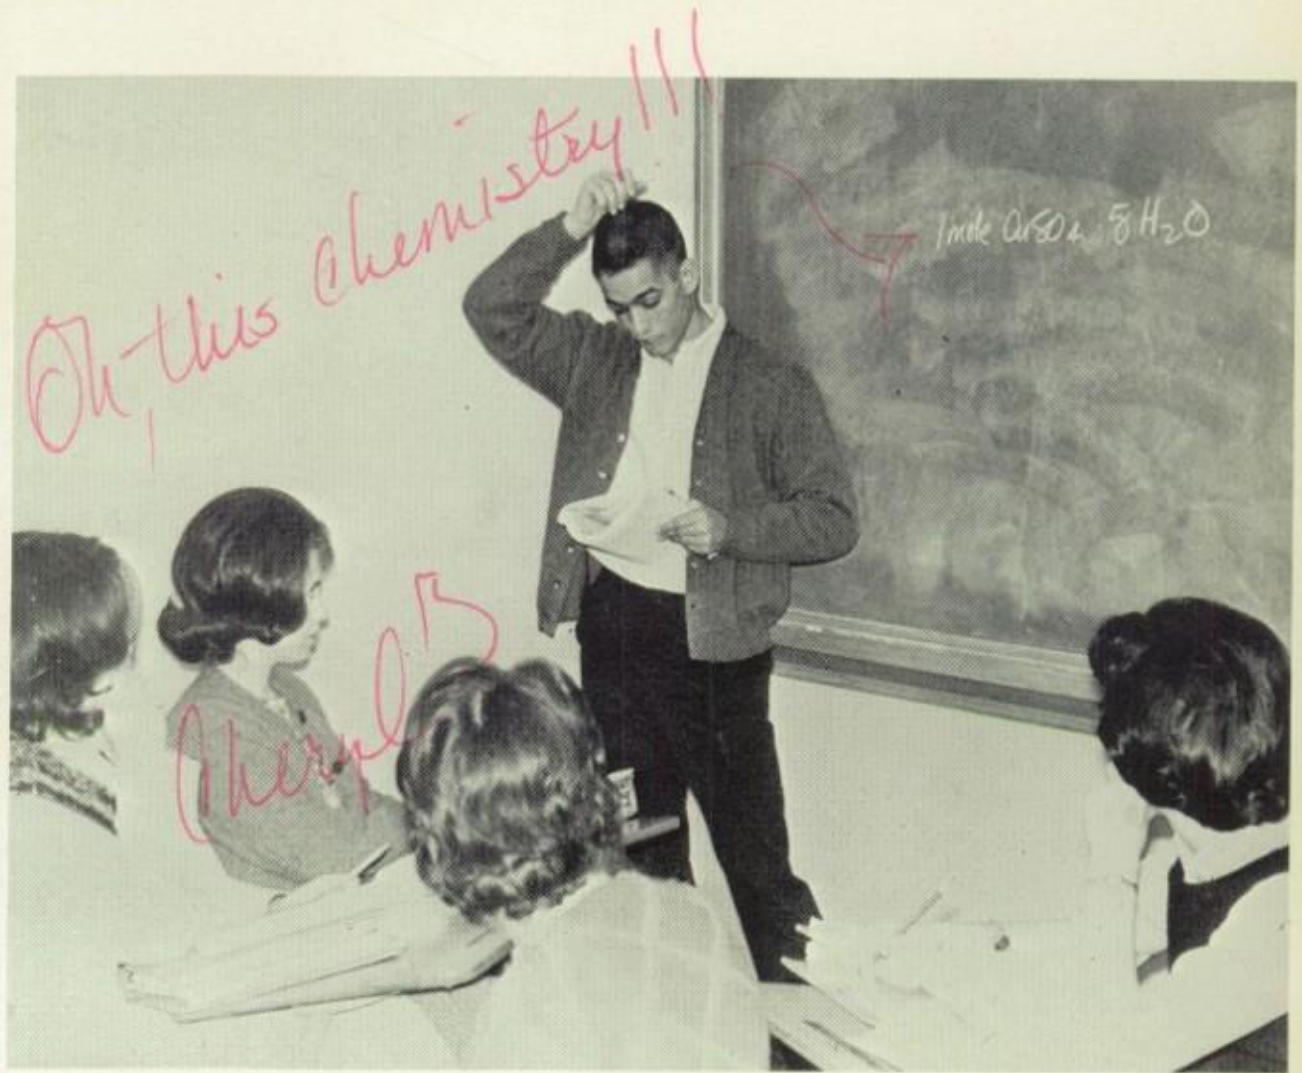

Friday night? I'd simply love to!

SPORTS

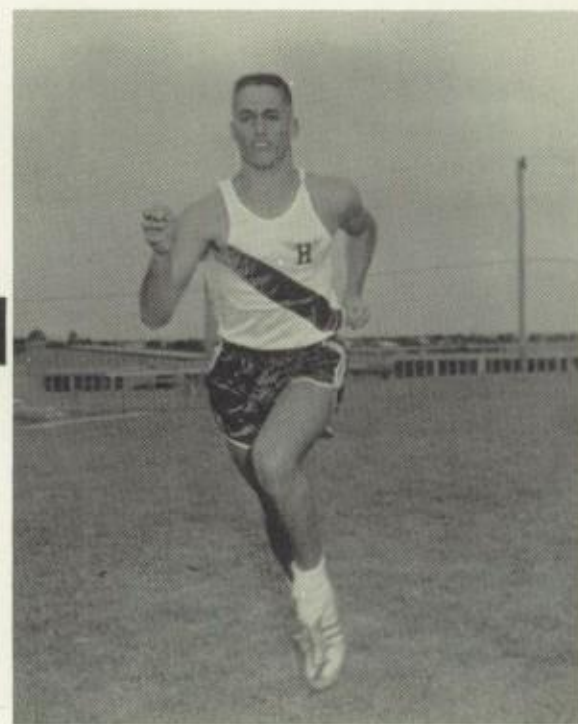

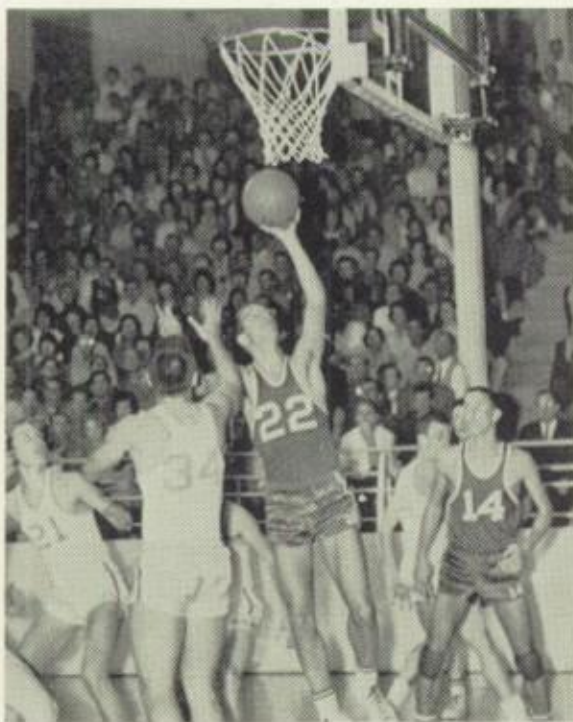

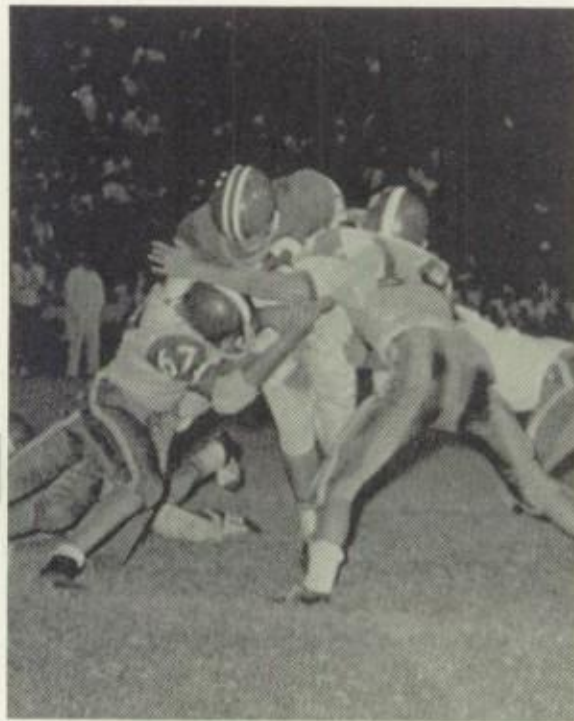

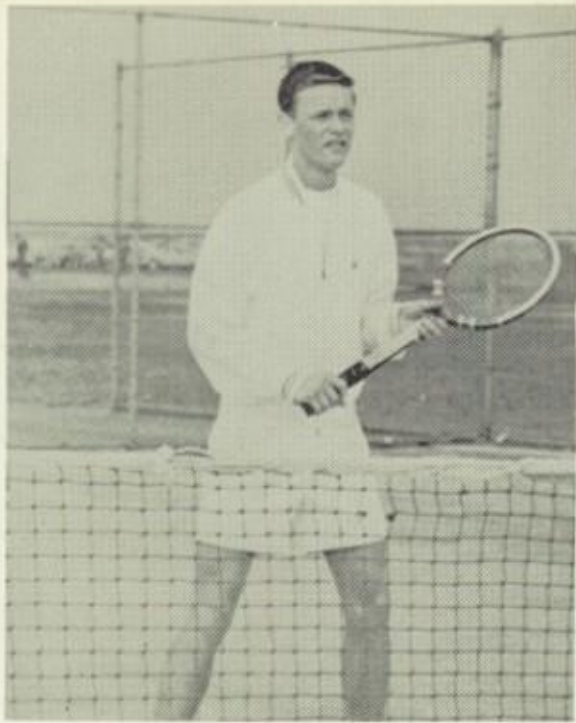

Ever since the days of the first Greek Olympic games, athletic endeavor has been held in high esteem by all peoples. The excitement of a contest of strength, endurance and skill is perhaps unequalled in any other field. It provides a unique stimulation to both fan and player which enables him to appreciate the accomplishments of the human body. To some people, sports are a pleasure; to others they are a business. To some they are relaxation, to others they are a profession. But one thing is evident; sports know no boundaries, for their appeal is universal.

Here at Hillcrest, athletics play a big part in the everyday life of a student. His opportunities to participate in athletic activities are vast, and he will be sure to benefit from such participation.

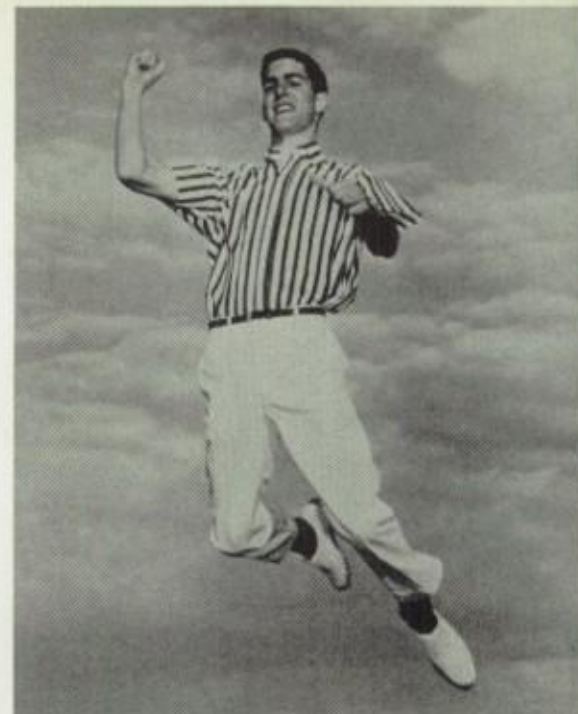

What exactly is most beneficial about athletics is hard to say. Is it the element of competition, the development of a fierce, aggressive spirit, the desire to win? Or is it the fostering of a team spirit, a willingness to work together? Maybe it is the physical conditioning that comes from competition resulting in bodily strength and stamina. It is probably a combination of all of these for all these help to create a better person. This creation is the greatest contribution that sports have to offer.

We pause now to salute the athletes, teams and coaches we have at Hillcrest High School. We salute them because of the diversion they have brought, because of the enjoyment they have given. We salute them for their victories, even for their defeats; we salute them because we believe better men are made because of them.

A Message to Dads...

TO BIG, STRONG, HANDSOME DADS EVERYWHERE

Keeping home a good, secure place for the family can be a pretty tall order these days. That's why so many Dads count on us for insurance against fire, burglary, liability and all the other ills a home is heir to.

How's your insurance program? If you haven't checked up on it lately, why not let us help? There'd be no obligation, of course.

When it comes to insurance, we're experts in the kind of "better program" that makes for that secure, comfortable feeling.
